

Leadership Kingsville

Admissions Application

Introduction

The effectiveness of personal involvement in the future development of Kingsville can be enhanced through increased knowledge of the community's history, citizenry and its economic and political make-up. It is the intent of the Leadership Kingsville Program to provide a foundation of knowledge that potential leaders will use to aid their involvement in community affairs.

Established in 1980 by the Kingsville Chamber of Commerce, Leadership Kingsville is an annual series of educational programs which focus on significant community information and issues.

PURPOSE

The purpose of Leadership Kingsville is to identify, educate and motivate emerging leaders and encourage their involvement in the Kingsville Community.

COMMITMENT

There will be nine program meetings for the year. Classes will meet on the following dates:

September 22, 2016
October 27, 2016
November 17, 2016
December 22, 2016
January 26, 2017
February 23, 2017
March 23, 2017
April 27, 2017
May 25, 2017

Meeting times may vary depending on the scheduled event. The classes will be held during work day hours; therefore applicants need to have their supervisor sign off to show their understanding of having their employee participate in the Leadership Kingsville Program and its time commitment. Absence from more than two meetings shall result in the automatic dismissal of a participant from the Leadership Kingsville Program.
